Longwood Junior High to Celebrate International Peace Day - Correction

MIDDLE ISLAND – In what has become an annual tradition, Longwood Junior High School will observe International Peace Day on Wed., Sept. 21, by creating a “human” peace symbol on the school lawn adjacent to the athletic fields at 12:50 PM.

This year’s peace symbol will spell the word “Love,” with the peace sign created in the “o.” Last year, the students formed a peace sign.

The entire student body will participate in the celebration, which falls on Gandhi’s birthday. The building-wide initiative is spearheaded by the Social Studies, English as a Second Language and Languages Other Than English Departments. It is held with the support of the Shanti Fund, an organization founded after 9/11 to promote world peace through education.
