Longwood Junior High Musicians Perform at Hofstra University

MIDDLE ISLAND – Eight seventh-grade student musicians from Longwood Junior High School were selected to perform at Hofstra University's prestigious Ninth Annual Middle School Honors Band Festival on Oct. 20 and 21. They joined 340 seventh grader musicians from the tri-state area and 110 musicians from Hofstra University's Symphonic Band to form the 450-member Festival Band. They performed under the direction of composer and guest conductor Larry Clark, who is one of the most-performed composers of band music in the world, according to a statement from Hofstra University.
