Longwood Junior High School Recognized by Volunteers of the Shanti Fund

Longwood Junior High School Principal Levi McIntyre (second from left), accepts a certificate from Suffolk County Executive Steve Levy on behalf of the Volunteers of the Shanti Fund in recognition of the school's peace event on International Peace Day, Sept. 21. Since 9/11, the Shanti Fund organization has observed the United Nation's declaration of an International Decade for a Culture of Peace and Non-Violence for the Children of the World. The Longwood Junior High School student body annually celebrates the day, this year by creating a human sign of peace and love with all 1,500 students of the school. From left are: Assistant Principal Kenneth O'Neill, Dr. McIntyre, Suffolk County Executive Levy, Regina Casele, language teacher; and Assistant Principal Christian Losee.
