Veterans Honored at Elementary School

YAPHANK –Children at the Charles E. Walters Elementary Schools celebrated Veterans’ Day by saying “thank you” to veterans, servicemen and women through songs, letters and cards in ceremonies at the school.

The honorees included parents, grandparents, aunts and uncles, neighbors and friends.

The observance has become an annual tradition at the school that recognizes each individual’s name, rank, branch and time of service. Among the honorees were veterans from World War II through the current military conflicts.
